The USGA Mid-Am comes to Wisconsin

The USGA Mid-Am will feature 264 of the worlds top amateur golfers over age 25 will compete for the title. Competitors will play 18 holes at both Blue Mound Country Club a classic Seth Raynor design opened in 1926 and the modern and massive Erin Hills designed by Dr. Michael Hurdzan, Dana Fry and Ron Whitten which opened in 2006.

After the opening 36 holes the top 64 players will start match play competition on Monday Sept 12th at Erin Hills continuing to Thursdays 36 hole final.

As a spectator, this is a chance to walk these different but incredible golf courses without the big stands and crowds, while watching great golf.

As a bonus Fond du Lac's own Mark Scheibach will be teeing off at 6:50AM Saturday at Blue Mound and 11:50AM Sunday at Erin Hills. Go and cheer him on.

More information on the field, courses and tournament can be found at the USGA Website. The winner of the MId-AM receives an exemption into the 2023 US Open and if still a amateur a invitation to the the 2023 Masters.

Please join us for a mix of fun and competition.

Laughter on the Links

“I didn’t miss the putt. I made the putt. The ball just missed the hole.”

– Peter Jacobsen

Husband and wife were playing in the club’s mixed foursomes. He hit a great drive down the middle – she sliced the second shot into a copse of trees. Unfazed he played a brilliant recovery shot, which went onto the green a foot from the pin. She poked at the putt and sent it ten feet beyond the pin. He lined up the long putt and sank it. To his wife he said, “We’ll have to do better. That was a bogey five.” “Don’t blame me,” she snapped, “I only took two of them.”
